Our Traditional Funeral

Our Professional Fees:

£ 1,490.00

Our service charge includes the provision of a 24 hour service by telephone and the use of our Chapels of Rest during office hours without charge. As a company we have traditionally visited our families in their own homes (if they reside locally) to make the funeral arrangements and subsequent visits before and after the funeral. Our aim is for the family to have the same Funeral Director from the initial contact through to the day of the funeral. We will advise in relation to the registration of the death, the funeral service and give advice on the options available to you as a family for the funeral. We will complete the necessary documentation for burial or cremation and liaise with third parties and make payments to them on your behalf. The administration of donations in memory of your loved one are included in the above cost. We will collect the cremated remains if a local crematorium is used and retain according to your wishes without a time limit. As is tradition we will also record the names of mourners who attend for a local funeral service.

Bringing the deceased into our care: (45 running miles)

£ 215.00

If the deceased passed away at a private residence the above charge applies day or night, 7 days a week. If the death occurred in Hospital, we will endeavour to bring the deceased into our care as soon as possible using our own vehicles, once the required paperwork has been completed. The cost includes the dressing of the deceased in their own clothes or the provision of a dressing gown robe.

Embalming:

Embalming is the temporary preservation of the deceased which also gives a more natural skin tone. Whilst not a legal requirement, there are many benefits that this process can bring and can extend the time available to the family at the Chapel of Rest.

There are other vehicles available for the conveyance of the coffin, such as a motorcycle or horse drawn hearse etc. Price on request.

The Limousine: £ 275.00
